

HUGE SUM ASKED FOR SCHOOLS OF CAPITAL.Washington, D. C., to Be Center of Education, Legislative Plan.

(Capital News Service)

Washington, Dec. 26.—That the nation's capital should be the center of the educational life of the nation, as well as its governmental center, is demanded in a resolution passed at the annual convention of the National Education Association in Boston, and backed by the bold request of the Washington Board of Education for six and a half millions to bring the capital school up to date.

One hundred and sixteen thousand teachers sent their representatives to Boston for the convention, where they passed a resolution which reads:

"In a special sense the schools of the capital city belong to the nation. In behalf of the nation we ask congress to create a board of education for the city of Washington which shall be entirely free from party control, to have direct control of its own financial budget, and with a secure financial income sufficient to make these schools worthy of the capital city of the nation."

Washington schools are neglected run down, out of date, have poor paid teachers; suffer from overcrowding, the two platoon system and policy of temporizing on the part of congress, the appropriating power for Washington's schools. That the children of the national capital should have at least as good a chance for an education as is given in a thousand small but intensely American and wholly enlightened towns and cities, is the thought behind the resolution passed by the N. E. A., and the normal force behind the demand of the present Board of Education for money enough to replace old buildings with new, buy sufficient books, and pay teachers enough to keep good ones on the job of instructing the youth of the nation's city.

GOVERNMENT TO ASSIST IN SHRINE MEET IN JUNELarge Appropriation Asked to Provide for Visitors Expected
June 3.

(Capital News Service)

Washington, Dec. 26.—The Imperial Council Session of the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North America, which will occur in Washington in June, 1923, is expected to bring to the capital city the largest crowd of sight-seers which has ever invaded it. It is predicted, from requests for parking space for railroad cars, and reservations made in hotels, that more than three hundred thousand visitors will crowd Washington during Shrine week.

Provision for the comfort and safety is made in a joint resolution introduced in the senate by Chairman Ball, of the senate district committee. This resolution appropriates $25,000, or so much of that sum as may be necessary for the maintenance of public order, the safety of the public, etc., during the annual session of the Imperial Council of the Mystic Shrine.

The convention will be held from June 3 to June 7, inclusive, but the appropriation covers the period from May 25 to June 10.

The resolution also appropriates funds for the erection of temporary public convenience stations, information booths, etc. The commissioners are to be authorized to make special police regulations for the occasion, to fix passenger fares, and otherwise control the public utilities that would be called into service.

A WARNING.

A man who would not take his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by a neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a hive of bees and in ten minutes he looked like a warty squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, failing to note a barb wire fence, which he ran into breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy, and ruining a $5 pair of pants. The cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the corn. Hearing the racket, his wife ran out, upsetting a 4-gallon churn of rich cream into the basket of kittens and drowned them. In her haste she lost a $17 set of teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the cream into the parlor and ruined a brand new $20 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven sittings of eggs and the calves chewed the tails of four night shirts. Cheaper by far to have the paper delivered, says a South Dakota newspaper.—Ex.

"Feeling Fine!"

"I was pale and thin, hardly able to go," says Mrs. Bessie Bearden, of Central, S. C. "I would suffer, when I stood on my feet, with bearing-down pains in my sides and the lower part of my body. I did not rest well and didn't want anything to eat. My color was bad and I felt miserable. A friend of mine told me of and I then remembered my mother used to take it. . . After the first bottle I was better. I began to fatten up and I regained my strength and good, healthy color. I am feeling fine. I took twelve bottles (of Cardui) and haven't had a bit of trouble since."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Thousands of other women have had similar experiences in the use of Cardui, which has brought relief where other medicines had failed.

If you suffer from female ailments, take Cardui. It is a woman's medicine. It may be just what you need.
